

Indians Don't Get Divorced

Book Talk & Discussion

Sunday, May 26
3:00 - 4:30 pm
Virginia Bennett Room

Join us for a thought-provoking program on the taboo topic of divorce within South Asian American communities.

Explore the historical pressures surrounding marriage and divorce, and engage in an interactive discussion on normalizing conversations about healthy relationships for future generations. Let's break the silence and foster understanding together.

The Indians Don't Get Divorced Book Talk will be an interactive discussion with Shailee Mehta, the author of the book, Simi Markar, a licensed family and marriage therapist and Founder of Mindset Consulting, and Dr. Amita Roy Shah, Professor and Founder of Social Edge.

Attendance is first-come, first-served, until we reach capacity.
